

Darien Police Department

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEATH INVESTIGATION**

* UPDATE – JUNE 18, 2018 *******

Monday June 18, 2018 – 5:00 P.M.

The Darien Police Department is classifying this death investigation as a murder / suicide. Our investigation has determined that Bourk E. Esho and Olivia E. Esho were shot by Olasunkanmi R. Esho, who then turned the gun on himself.

* UPDATE – June 11, 2018 *******

Monday June 11, 2018 – 4:45 P.M.

The three deceased individuals in the residence were as follow:

- Bourk E. Esho (F) 33 years old – out of Darien.
- Olivia E. Esho (F) 7 years old – out of Darien.
- Olasunkanmi R. Esho (M) 42 years old – out of Chicago.

Preliminary investigation is that all three individuals died of a gunshot wounds.

Let me remind you this is still an active investigation and we have no indication that any threat to the community exists.

There is nothing further at this time. Thank You

SEE PAGE 2

Darien Police Department

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sunday, June 10, 2018

At approximately 12:58am Sunday June 10, 2018 the Darien Police responded to a residence in the 7500 block of Farmingdale Drv. for a report of shots fired. Upon arrival officers discovered three deceased individuals all from the same family.

This is an active investigation and many details cannot be released at this time.

There is no threat to the community and the area is secured.

Gerald Piccoli, Commander
Darien Police Department
1710 Plainfield Road
Darien, IL. 60561
Direct: (630) 353-8319
Admin.: (630) 971-3999
FAX: (630) 971-4326
e-mail: gpiccoli@darienil.gov